INDICTMENTS

In Bell County Result From Eleventh District Primary.

Five Members of the County Committee, and One Government Official Caught in the Drg Net.

The grand jury which has been in session in Pineville for the past two weeks filed their report last Monday in the Bell Circuit Court, C. D. Ball, C. C. Thompson, Grant Brown, Isaac Turner and R. T. Johnson, all members of the Republican County Committee were indicted for alleged malfeasance in office in that they failed to meet and count the vote of the primary August 9th, between D. C. Edwards and Dr. Hunter.

The men under indictment were a part of the Hunter adherents who were in Pineville the day the vote should have been counted, but absented themselves from the place of meeting.

J. G. Rollins, the United States Commissioner, and another Hunter supporter, was indicted on the charge of forgery, it being alleged that he raised the vote in the Excelsior precinct from 22 for Hunter to 522. Evidence was offered tending to show that the properly certified returns were received by C. J. Johnson, secretary of the committee, and sent by him in care of Rollins to Mr. W. W. Byrley, district chairman, and that during transmission they were raised by Mr. Rollins.

The evidence before the grand jury given by an officer of the election at Bennett's showed conclusively that there were only fourteen official ballots cast at that place, and that in all there was not exceeding 220. The certificate from that place went through the same channel, it is charged, and was raised to 600.

John Langdon was also indicted for disturbing an election and on the charge of stuffing the ballot-box at Excelsior. In that case the proof tended to show that at the time the polls opened that officers at that precinct opened and inspected the ballot-box and found that it contained a large number of ballots prepared and voted for Hunter, and that when the officers emptied them out in the floor Mr. Langdon, who was on watch, and who is a strong Democrat, insisted on them being placed back in the ballot-box, and showed signs of fight. It was further charged that when the officers refused to be coerced he took the bogus ballots and took them away with him.

Leg Broken.

Amos Mayhew, the 10-year old son of Thomas Mayhew broke his leg while playing football at the city school last Tuesday.

He was running after the ball and aimed to kick it, when his leg struck a small shade tree, breaking both bones in the leg below the knee.

This was purely an accident and no one save himself was in any way responsible for the unfortunate affair.

The Teachers regret very much the accident and have been compelled to enforce strict rules regarding the game.

Little Amos is doing nicely and will soon be out again if no complications should arise.

WARMING UP

The Various Candidates are Each Looking to Their Own Interest.

As the time draws near for the primary the various candidates are all moving briskly, looking after their own special interests.

This office has been crowded with orders from the different candidates of various kinds. All seem to be convinced that printer's ink is an important factor in convincing the public of the merits of the respective candidates.

From the present indications the campaign will prove to be the most hotly contested one that the people of Knox county has ever witnessed. The field is full of candidates, any of them, perhaps, worthy of the position he is seeking; and in many instances there are from four to seven candidates seeking the same office, and with their friends working for their interest, makes it indeed interesting to a great many throughout the county.

It has been the aim of the ADVOCATE to leave every candidate to "paddle his own canoe," and whoever may be the choice of the people will be supported by the ADVOCATE.

Of course the editor is not different from all other men in so far as not to have any personal preference among the list of candidates, but it has been, and always will be, the purpose of the ADVOCATE to remain so far as it is possible neutral, when there is a family fight on hand. We are ready at all time to wage warfare upon our political enemies, but when troubles arise in our own household we shall try to pour oil upon the troubled waters and make peace in so far as it is possible.

We have permitted our neighborhood editors from the various parts of the county to express the sentiments of the community in which they represent. This has been done without having in view the detriment of any other candidate.

Let the campaign warm up; let's have a full vote polled and whoever the choice of the majority of the people is shall be the representative of the Republican party for the next four years.

EVERY TUB

Should Stand Upon its Own Bottom.

No One Should Try to Slide Into Any Office on the Demerits of Another.

Some of the candidates for county office in this county are trying to make their race upon the merits and demerits of Dr. Hunter and Mr. Edwards. It is impossible for us to discover any connection whatever between county office and members of Congress. It neither qualifies nor disqualifies a man to have supported either of those men for Congress.

If a candidate has no other reason to offer for his election than that he supported or opposed a certain candidate for Congress, we think—to use a commonplace expression, that he is "about out of soap-grease."

It is an insult to the good sense and decency of the community, for a candidate to approach a voter and ask his support on the ground that he had voted or worked for a certain candidate for Congress.

Such a candidate is the enemy of the Republican party. He is seeking to create division and strife in the ranks of the party, hoping thereby to gain personal advantage.

Many thoughtful Republicans are beginning to consider this phase of the question and are preparing to see that no candidate shall profit by the wrong he does the party.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Birdseye

News items are somewhat scarce.

People generally (the farmers) are now done foddering and pulling their corn.

Sorghum making is now occupying the attention of every one who has raised a crop of this commodity.

Candidates for office have been calling on us reminding us that the election is close at hand.

By the way, Mr. Flem D. Sampson called on us lately. He claims that he is progressing nicely in his canvass; furthermore your correspondent has heard others freely express themselves for Mr. Sampson.

The people in the lower end of Knox county says that we do not need a new Court-house. Mr. Sampson says that the old Court-house will do a while longer. We all freely agree with Mr. Sampson in this matter. As relates to the last election of County judge, when Mr. Sampson, Hon. Judge Wyatt and Hon. Judge Miller were all aspirants for the same office. The will of the people seems to have preferred Mr. Sampson in lieu of the other Hon. Judges aside from Judge Miller. Your correspondent has a high opinion of all those gentlemen, has no ill will toward them but has abundant good will for all.

It has been said that a new Court-house debt would hardly be felt that is not the way, your correspondent experience the last Court-house debt when he cut timber and split rails at 25 cents a hundred to get money to pay tax.

That last Court-house debt was a thorn in the flesh.
